What training is needed to work in this field?	Imagination, heart and a willingness to share yourself with anyone who reads your work. Basic structure knowledge and a strong desire to get your message across.
What is a typical week like or what do you spend most of your time doing in your job?	Write, write, and write.
What is the job outlook for this field?	If the work is good and from the heart, it will be read but don't count of getting paid. Do it for the love and the need to tell your story. When you're ready to start, make sure that you have another job or another source of income. If you are good, the money will come.
What are the benefits of working in this field?	You get to be heard. You are on your own schedule and you can use your brain and imagination.
What advice or other information do you want to share with someone considering this field?	You must have a strong desire to write. Not just say that you are a writer. A writer writes. There are a million good ideas. They are a dime a dozen. If you care enough about your story, you must commit to it until it is finished and then be ready to start over. It's hard work but so beautiful to see the completion of an idea onto the page or even better, the screen.
